Finishing Notes:

Finish off and weave in all ends. Choose one of the finishing methods below or leave it as is.

To make a tassel: Wrap yarn in color of choice around slightly spread fingers until you have the desired thickness. (I wrapped mine approx. 35 times.) Tie the top to secure it and cut the bottom. Attach the piece to the closed end of the pixie. Take a small amount of yarn (I choose to use the opposite color) and tie it around the hanging strands of yarn approx. 1" from top.

To make a pom pom: Use a pom pom maker and make a pom size of your choosing. If you do not have a pom pom maker, a web search will pull up several sites on how to make them without.

To make a braid: Depending on thickness you desire, take strands in multiples of 3 (I like to cut at least 12 strands. You can use multiple colors in several different ways. Play around with it!) Choose what length of braid you would like and cut as many as you would like. Attach the top just as you would the tassel and begin braiding. I stop several inches shy of the end so I can trim as needed.
